AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 36 months. This term consists of 36 months on each of Counts 3 and 7 of the Indictment, to be served concurrently.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of 3 years. This term consists of 3 years on each of Counts 3 and 7 of the Indictment, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office and Second Amended General Order 20-04.
2. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from custody and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.
3. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using alcohol and illicit drugs, and from abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision.
4. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs. The defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer.

5. The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the program by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer.
6. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of the Court-ordered treatment to the aftercare contractors during the period of community supervision. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer. If the defendant has no ability to pay, no payment shall be required.
7. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
8. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
9. Defendant shall possess and use only those Digital Devices and Internet Accounts that have been disclosed to, and approved by, the United States Probation and Pretrial Services Office upon commencement of supervision. Any changes or additions to Digital Devices or Internet Accounts are to be disclosed to, and approved by, the Probation Officer prior to the first use of same. Disclosure shall include both usernames and passwords for all Digital Devices and Internet Accounts. Digital Devices include, but are not limited to, personal computers, tablet computers such as iPads, mobile/cellular telephones, personal data assistants, digital storage media, devices or media which provide access to electronic games, devices that can access or can be modified to access the Internet, as well as any of their peripheral equipment. Internet Accounts include, but are not limited to, email accounts, social media accounts, electronic bulletin boards, or other account on the Internet.
10. After the Probation Officer has given defendant approval to use a particular Digital Device or Internet Account, defendant need not notify the Probation Officer about subsequent use of that particular Digital Device or Internet Account. Defendant shall, however, notify his Probation Officer of any additions to, removals from, or other modifications of the hardware or software on any Digital Device or Internet Account that defendant causes to occur, within one week of that addition, removal or modification. The defendant shall not hide or encrypt files or data without specific prior approval from the Probation Officer.
11. Defendant shall provide the Probation Officer with all billing records for any service or good relating to any Digital Device or Internet Account, including those for cellular telephone, cable, Internet and satellite services, as requested by the Probation Officer, so that the Probation Officer can verify compliance with these requirements.
12. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the Computer Monitoring Program. The defendant shall pay the cost of the Computer Monitoring Program.
13. Defendant shall not knowingly contact, or attempt to contact, the Victims identified in the indictment, or their family, including but not limited to their parents, siblings, other relatives, any spouse or significant other with whom the Victims may share an intimate relationship, and any children of the Victims (all whether existing now or during the pendency of any term of supervised release, and collectively "the Victims' Families"), directly or indirectly by any means, including but not limited to in person, by mail, telephone, email, text message, or other electronic means, or through a third party.
14. Defendant shall not attempt to locate the Victims or the Victims' Families, or attempt to obtain information concerning the whereabouts, phone numbers, email addresses, or other personal identifiers of the Victims or the Victims' Families.

USA vs. Kiernan Major

Docket No.: CR 22-00387 DSF

15. The defendant shall submit the defendant's person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers, cell phones, other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, email accounts, social media accounts, cloud storage accounts, or other areas under the defendant's control, to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer or law enforcement officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Any search pursuant to this condition will be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner upon reasonable suspicion that the defendant has violated a condition of his supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation.

The Court authorizes the Probation & Pretrial Services Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction or drug dependency. Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge.

The Court authorizes the Probation Officer to disclose the Presentence Report, and any previous mental health evaluations or reports, to the treatment provider. The treatment provider may provide information (excluding the Presentence report), to State or local social service agencies (such as the State of California, Department of Social Service), for the purpose of the client's rehabilitation.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $7,374.60 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A.

The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as follows:

Victim:	Amount:
Victim One	$5,465.77
Victim Two	$1908.83

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least 10% of defendant's gross monthly income but not less than $50, whichever is greater, shall be made during the period of supervised release and shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the Court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the defendant makes a partial payment, each payee shall receive approximately proportional payment unless another priority order or percentage payment is specified in the judgment.

Pursuant to Guideline § 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

USA vs. Kiernan MajorDocket No.: CR 22-00387 DSF

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons conduct a mental health evaluation of the defendant and provide all necessary treatment.

The Court recommends that the defendant be designated to a Bureau of Prisons facility somewhere in Southern California.

The Court advised the defendant of the right to appeal this judgment.

SENTENCING FACTORS: The sentence is based on the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. §3553, including the applicable sentencing range set forth in the guidelines, as more particularly reflected in the court reporter's transcript.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
